

Miss Mabel Claire Ledlie,
Box 146
Alton,
New Hampshire.

My dear, my precious Darling,
This is nothing but torture, when it comes half past three on Sunday afternoon it nearly makes me beside myself with longing dear, longing for you. It is terrible. You will think that I am a great big baby won't you, by my everlasting complainings, but dear I love you I love you I love you with all of my heart dear I love you. and yes - I want you to be my own sweet darling loving wife. I want you, I want you It doesn't seem as though I could wait another day. No dear, I do not think that you can get along without me better than I can without you. Why you cannot get along without me, and you will not because you must not. We can neither of us get along at all whatsoever without the other, can we? - to see my Mabel, to put my arms I took your music down to the Round - around her, away up to New Hampshire John this morning. Mr. Sweet is away - Rhode Island. We ought to be up on his vacation, somewhere in New - in that piazza out in that hammock Hampshire, I don't remember if they said - instead of where we are. Why do where he would return but they will - things have to be the way they are see that he gets the music anyway. and why do things happen the way I didn't stay and didn't go to church they do? It is all for the best tho anywhere. I don't think I could stand isn't it. We won't have to wait it. Ah! I want you dearie I much longer, only four weeks - Ah! Ah!

want you I want you, I love Do you suppose dearie for one-half you!!!! You are coming an instant, that I don't know back with me dearie, and no, no, what a girl, what a sweetheart, I no, no, I will not let you leave have? do you suppose any such me again! - I am crazy, des- a thing as that? do you suppose perate, and I would not be at all that I would be so desperately, earnestly surprised to wake up some night and deeply in love if I didn't know and find myself travelling as what a sweetheart I have? I know what fast as my legs would let me a girl I have when she makes me fall in love with her the way you have made me fall in love with you dear, I do not fall in love with every girl I see. I love you dear, I love you and only you. You will love me ten times more ardently some day, you will show me someday, my own precious sweetheart, yes I know you will, I cannot wait, come back come back come back come back.

Yes I want you to be my wife I want you to be my wife, "real often" all the time. I love you I love you I love you I love you I love you I love you I love you I love you I love you I love you I love you I
love you I love you I love you I love you I love you I want you I want you I want you, I need you I need you I need you I need you, I want you to be my wife, my own darling sweetheart wife, I will never never never no never and never let you go off again dearie, and leave me. I love you dear, way way down deep in the bottom of my heart I love you (Love to all) Chester, ("remember")

Monday A.M.
